

13 June 2005

Risk Integrated to Assist World Bank on African Infrastructure Projects

Risk Integrated has been asked by the World Bank to give technical assistance in promoting mechanisms to finance infrastructure projects in Africa. Risk Integrated will use its expertise in structuring to allocate risks to the local and international parties who are best placed to accept them.